

CARECEN

Central American Refugee Center

Job Description

The Central American Refugee Center (CARECEN-NY), based on Long Island, seeks Summer 2023 legal interns/externs. CARECEN is a non-profit serving the immigrant community on Long Island and has worked on behalf of immigrants for nearly four decades through its Hempstead and Brentwood offices.

Role and Responsibilities

Legal Interns and Externs will work on cases across CARECEN's legal programs, including Removal Defense, ONA Legal Counsel, the Affirmative team, and Afghan Legal Project. Assignments and responsibilities will vary depending on program needs, but will generally include:

- Filling out USCIS forms and applications
- Drafting legal briefs and letters
- Legal research on topics such as asylum, Special Immigrant Juvenile Status, Special Immigrant Visas, employment authorization applications, and others
- Drafting affidavits
- Country conditions research
- Client intakes and consultations
- Attending legal team meetings
- Relevant administrative duties
- Maintain detailed case notes on individual cases and consultation outcomes

Requirements: Applicants must currently be a law student at an accredited law school. Spanish, Dari, Pashto, or Haitian Creole language proficiency is preferred but not required.

Home Office: Remote with option of in person work at CARECEN's Hempstead office

Compensation: CARECEN is unfortunately unable to pay interns/externs. We encourage applicants to seek funding from their law schools or third-party funders and are happy to support such applications as opportunities arise.

How to Apply: Students from participating schools should apply through PILC Fair. Other applicants should email a cover letter, resume, and writing sample to megan@carecenny.org with "Summer 2023 Internship Application" in the subject line. The application deadline is Friday, April 7, 2023. We will review applications on a rolling basis.

CARECEN is an equal opportunity employer and embraces diversity. Immigrants, women, BIPOC, LGBTQ+ and persons from other traditionally marginalized groups are encouraged to apply